

Handwriting practice lines for the letter 'j'. Each row contains eight dashed lowercase 'j's for tracing. The letters are positioned on a set of three horizontal lines: a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line. Each 'j' starts with a small circle at the top, indicating the starting point for the stroke. The letter 'j' is formed by a vertical line that descends from the middle line, passes the bottom line, and curves to the left at the end.
